LAWTECH ORIGINS

Australia's leading Legal Technology event since 2006

It was way back in 2006 when Chilli IQ first developed the Lawtech Summit as we saw the need for a platform for the evolving legal technology market in Australia. It was new, fresh and created a buzz amongst the growing legal technology crowd but furthermore it created a community. It brought together legal IT Managers and everyone involved with the technology of a law firm in one place – for the first time in Australia.

Fast forward to now and the legal technology community has grown and thrived.

Through the last 18 years the Lawtech Summit has seen the evolution of legal technology managers go from just the IT guys to becoming an important and essential part of the business strategy of law firms today.

We are proud to be an integral part of this ever evolving community and continue to offer a stage for thought leaders and ground breakers of the legal technology field.

EVOLVING LEGAL SERVICE DELIVERY:

MAKING AN IMPACT THROUGH DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION

Differentiating between hype and reality - how to focus on impactful change that technology can make within law firms

In the past year, significant changes have occurred with the rise of AI and generative AI, suggesting that we might be on the brink of the next major disruption or saviour. It is crucial to distinguish between hype and reality and concentrate on the meaningful changes that technology can bring to law firms.

How can we distinguish between the hype and the transformative impact of AI? Where do we, as individuals, stand in this evolving technological landscape? Are we optimizing services to the point of making our own roles redundant, or is AI merely enhancing and simplifying our tasks as the creators claim?

We are stepping into an uncharted territory, and it is crucial to reflect on the effects on our practices, our clients, and ourselves.

The Lawtech Summit is the trailblazer event for legal technology in Australia and NZ, delivering innovative conferences since 2006.

The Lawtech Summit, in its eighteenth year, has served as a vital platform for addressing significant issues, like these, concerning law firms and technology since 2006.

The upcoming program will delve not only into the progress of AI but also explore other crucial areas such as cybersecurity, data compliance, and the digital transformation of law firms along with its implications.

The Lawtech Summit serves as a hub for learning and uniting the legal tech community, fostering the exchange of stories and experiences, and facilitating connections annually.

The Lawtech Awards are back - celebrating achievements of the past year get your nominations in!

SHAPE WHAT'S NEXT, NOW

Why wait for the future when you can shape it today? Instead of asking, "What will the future bring?" ask yourself, "What future do I want to create?"

The future isn't distant; it's built by the choices we make today. In a world of constant change, it's natural to feel anxious about what's ahead. But this anxiety can be a powerful call to action, urging us to take control. Adopting a future-ready mindset—embracing optimism, openness, curiosity, experimentation, and empathy—is not just an ideal; it's a practical approach to life. These mindset dimensions help you see and seize opportunities that others might miss.

Join Dr. Frederik G. Pferdt, Google's First Chief Innovation Evangelist and Stanford University Adjunct Professor, for an inspiring journey. Discover how to use your mindset to shape the life you want, rather than adapting to one shaped by others. Your future isn't just ahead—it's yours to create.

TECHNOLOGY, LAW & ETHICS

AI and machine learning have been influencing law and practice since long before the inception of ChatGPT. Yet during the last two years generative artificial intelligence has made enormous strides. No one can ignore genAI, especially legal practice. Recent research by Princeton University shows that law partners are the number one group to have their dominance challenged. It's no longer paralegals and first year associates at risk. How then should law accept the challenge of AI—it can't ignore it—and incorporate it into their practices in a knowledgeable and ethical way. It won't be easy.

OPPORTUNITY OR DYSTOPIA? EXPLORING FUTURE TECH TRENDS AND IMPACTS ON JUDGES AND LAWYERS

Technologies that have emerged over the past five years are changing the ways in which judges and lawyers work. Some of the technologies can support humans and others have the potential to replace them. This presentation considers international developments in selected jurisdictions as well as barriers to the take up of technology. From the use of supportive technologies including generative AI and videoconferencing, to the development of technologies that guide and monitor judges, there are differing ethical impacts as well as impacts on the role of judges and lawyers. The impacts on the judiciary and lawyers of these types of technologies are considered together with more future focused options. For example, how might judges and lawyers be ‘enhanced’ into the future and what options could be available to enhance, rather than replace, judges and lawyers?
